Breast Cancer Awareness Fundraising

Sheriff Tony Thompson announces a simple uniform change for deputies and officers for the month of October. Employees will be sporting pink shoulder patches, embroidered by Code 4 products, as a Breast Cancer fundraiser for the Susan G. Komen Foundation of Greater Iowa. All proceeds from the sale of patches will be donated to the foundation to aid in breast cancer awareness and research.

“We all know someone who has been impacted by breast cancer, so this is something that our agency is passionate about. We’re happy to change our look just a bit to help raise awareness and raise some money for this very worthwhile cause.” said Sheriff Thompson. The patches are also being sold to the public for $10.00 per patch with two different designs to choose from. Just stop by the sheriff’s office to purchase a patch and support the fundraising effort.

“We also purchased some patches that will be placed on the sides of our marked squad cars to further help raise awareness as we are out and about in the communities we serve.” Thompson said. “I hope our efforts can have some impact and once and for all, stomp out this horrible form of cancer.”
